Dear Jason:

CONDITIONAL OFFER LETTER

On behalf of Flagship US, Inc. I am pleased to offer you a full-time position as Account Executive with the following compensation package:

- On-target earnings (OTE) of $140,000 per year, including a base salary of $110,000 per year; OTE is based on the achievement of role-relevant KPIs, which will be defined and reviewed in consultation with your Supervisor.
- Eligibility to participate in the company employee share option plan, pursuant to which, you will be offered 1,000 options at an exercise price and subject to vesting conditions and the Employee Share Option Plan;
- Eligibility for health, dental and vision insurance coverage;
- Provision of 15 days (120 hours) of vacation leave that is accrued at 10 hours per month; with unused vacation leave being paid out upon termination;
- Provision of 5 days (40 hours) of paid sick leave upfront each year; however, unused sick leave is not paid out upon termination; and
- Company-paid holidays;

If you have any questions concerning the benefits for which you will be eligible, please feel free to contact your Supervisor or the HR team at hr@flagship.ai.

This position will be considered an exempt position for purposes of federal wage and hour law, which means that you will not be eligible for overtime pay for hours worked in excess of 40 in a given workweek.

You will be reporting to Simon Molnar, Chief Executive Officer (Supervisor). Your start date is scheduled for Monday, 19th May 2025. On your first day, you will be given an orientation by your Supervisor which will include completing employment forms, reviewing fringe benefits, and touring the premises. Please bring appropriate documentation for the completion of your new hire forms, including proof that you are presently eligible to work in the United States for I-9 purposes. Failure to provide appropriate documentation within 3 days of hire will result in immediate termination of employment in accordance with the terms of the Immigration Reform and Control Act. Your Supervisor will schedule and complete all onboarding activities.

Your employment will include an initial 6-month probationary period, during which your performance, conduct, and suitability for the role will be reviewed. A formal performance review will be conducted at the conclusion of this period. Eligibility for certain benefits (including share option plan participation) may be subject to the successful completion of this probationary period. At the Company's discretion, an employee's introductory period may be extended. Completion of the introductory period does not alter the employee's at-will status.

Please note that employment at Flagship US, Inc. is employment at-will and may be terminated at the will of either the Company or the employee, with or without cause or notice. Nothing in this offer letter creates or is intended to create a promise or representation of continued employment.

You will be subject to all policies and procedures contained in the Employee Handbook. However, please note that your employment is conditioned upon the following: (1) there has been satisfactory completion of your verification of your employment history as it appears on your application/resume; and (2) you have signed, and provided all information requested within the Flagship US, Inc. new hire packet, which includes the acknowledgment page within the Employee Handbook that signifies you have fully read and understood the handbook's contents and had an opportunity to ask any questions regarding its contents, any and all documents enclosed with this letter, including this letter; You are required to sign and date the Acknowledgement regarding received and read the Employee Handbook no sooner or later than ten (10) days following start of employment.

We were impressed with your skills and accomplishments and feel your background and experience are a good match for our present needs. We look forward to having you as part of our team.

Sincerely,
Flagship US, Inc.

Simon Molnar
